Knowing Your Neighbour

Knowing Your Neighbour

THIS MONTH, THE RESIDENCES AT THE ST. REGIS JAKARTA HAS THE DISTINCT PLEASURE OF FEATURING MR. YOSHIYUKI KAWAMURA, A VISIONARY LEADER OPERATING AT THE FOREFRONT OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS. BORN IN THE CULTURALLY RICH CITY OF KYOTO AND AN ALUMNUS OF DOSHISHA UNIVERSITY, MR. KAWAMURA BRINGS A WEALTH OF GLOBAL EXPERIENCE AND AN INSPIRING PRESENCE TO OUR VIBRANT COMMUNITY.

As the President Director of PT. The Sakura Green Indonesia, Mr. Kawamura's daily life is dynamic and deeply impactful. His primary business focus lies in exporting green energy overseas, a forward-looking venture that requires both dedication and strategic foresight. Currently, he dedicates much of his time and energy to the expansion and development of local ports. Yet, amidst these demanding professional commitments and a bustling schedule, he navigates his life with a refined sense of balance and purpose.

For Mr. Kawamura, professional success and a quality lifestyle are intrinsically interwoven. He believes that true fulfillment is cultivated by meeting and engaging with a diverse array of people. His personal philosophy is beautifully straightforward: he strives to give his absolute best, both at work and at play. He firmly believes that genuine success naturally fosters a healthy, well-rounded lifestyle, an ethos that spreads through his daily routine and enriches his experiences.

Despite his global business footprint, Mr. Kawamura's heart is firmly anchored in Indonesia. When asked why he chose to establish his life here, his answer is both passionate and deeply personal: he simply loves Indonesia. More importantly, it is the place his family calls home. This profound devotion to his loved ones ultimately guided his search for a residence that could provide the perfect, secure sanctuary for his family to thrive.

The pursuit of the ultimate blend of luxury and comfort led him to The Residences at The St. Regis Jakarta. For an expatriate like him, our property serves as an exquisite reflection of a premium, cosmopolitan lifestyle within Indonesia. It is a home that seamlessly bridges the gap between his private and his professional world, providing an elegant and impressive backdrop for inviting business partners, esteemed clients, and close friends alike.

As a family-oriented individual, Mr. Kawamura was particularly drawn to the unparalleled amenities that distinguish our residence from the rest. He highly values having access to the very same uncompromising, world-class services one would expect from a St. Regis hotel. Notably, he highlights the Teppanyaki Private Dining, an exclusive facility not found in other apartments in the city as a spectacular and unique setting to create cherished memories with his loved ones and host unforgettable private gatherings.

For those considering joining our community, Mr. Kawamura offers an insightful perspective grounded in his own lived experience. He emphasizes the exceptional security and safety provided for both residents and their visiting guests, coupled with our highly strategic location in the heart of Jakarta. Through Mr. Kawamura's eyes, The Residences at The St. Regis Jakarta is more than just a luxurious address; it is a meticulously crafted environment where comfort, peace of mind, and a life beautifully lived converge in perfect harmony.
